

NORTHERN HIGHLIGHTS

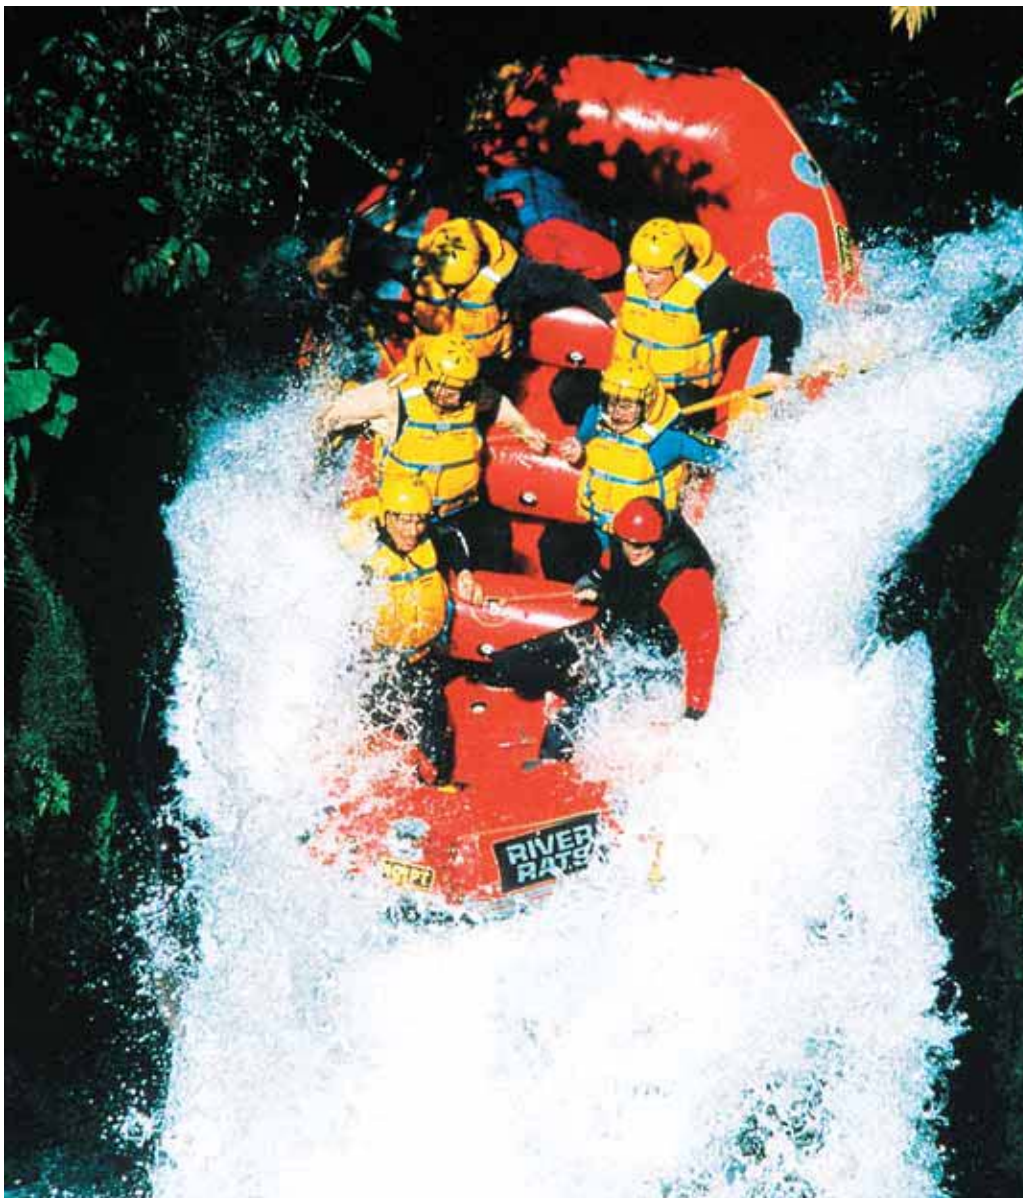

7 Days Auckland to Wellington

Travelling east, we depart Auckland and cross over to the rugged and white sand coastline of the Coromandel Peninsula to Hahei. We have time to spend here relaxing on the beach or exploring the rock formations of Cathedral Cove by either foot or kayak. Rotorua, the cultural and geothermal capital of New Zealand, is next. You can learn about Maori culture and enjoy an evening filled with song, dance, and a traditional meal. We continue making our way south east past Lake Taupo, New Zealand's largest lake, created by a huge volcanic eruption thousands of years ago. Next to Hawkes Bay. Hawkes Bay is New Zealand's oldest wine region; perhaps you could go on a wine tasting tour or take an early morning flight over the wineries. From Napier's Art Deco lined streets to Cape Kidnappers Gannett colony there is plenty to do - take your pick! We now wind our way down past the Tararua Ranges, 'The World Famous in New Zealand' Mangatinoka's Tui Brewery to Wellington, the vibrant and cultural capital city where your tour comes to an end.
